SQUIRE D. A. THOMAS DIES

JUSTICE OF PEACE AND NOTARY PUBLIC FOR OVER 30 YEARS.

Lived a Useful Life, Enjoying the Respect and Confidence of Wide Circle of Acquaintances.

Daniel A. Thomas, a highly respected citizen of Idaville, died in the Carlisle Hospital last Saturday night from hardening of the arteries in his 57th year. Squire Thomas was widely known in this county and in Cumberland county, serving a large number of people in both counties as a justice of the peace and notary public, which offices he filled for the past thirty years. His advice was along peaceful and helpful lines and but a small fraction of cases coming before him ever reached the courts. He enjoyed the respect and confidence of people wherever known. He had been in uncertain health for sometime, receiving treatment, but was not prevented from attending to business until about three weeks ago and on last Friday was taken to the Carlisle Hospital but the disease was too far advanced to receive any help. The funeral was held on Wednesday morning with services and interment at Upper Meridian Church. He leaves a wife who was Miss Annie C. Weidner, and a son and daughter, L. H. Thomas and Mrs. Frank Manges, both of Bradford.

David Boose died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John W. Stonestier, near Reese, Md., Monday of last week, aged 82 years and 2 days. He is survived by the following children: Dr. Theodore Boose, of Williamsport, Md.; Dallas, of Littlestown; Mrs. John W. Stonestier, of near Reese, Md.; Thomas, of Philadelphia; Herbert, of Wormleysburg; Oliver, of Mt. Pleasant, Md.; and Clarence Boose, of Middletown, Md. Funeral services were held Thursday of last week in the Lutheran Church at Silver Run by Rev. A. G. Wolf, and interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

Rev. Henry Ditzler, a Reformed minister living at Ruffsedale, near Pittsburgh, died last Friday. Death came suddenly as the result of a stroke of paralysis which affected his speech, and compelled his retirement from the pulpit. He was 65 years of age. Rev. Ditzler was well known in the eastern part of the county where he was born and lived a great part of his life prior to his entrance into the ministry. At one time he was a teacher in the public schools of Adams county. Later he entered the ministry, serving three Reformed churches, at Taneytown, Md.; Mt. Jackson, Va., and his last charge at Ruffsedale, Pa. He was a son of the late Samuel and Mary Ditzler, of Berwick township. In 1874 he was married to Miss Lillian Virginia Wehler, a daughter of the late Peter Wehler, of Hamilton township, who survives him with two children, Mrs. C. F. Miller, of Pittsburgh, and Lloyd Ditzler, of Woodsfield, Ohio. One brother, John Ditzler, of near Littlestown, and two sisters, Mrs. Maggie Wolf, and Miss Amanda Ditzler, of Hanover, survive. The funeral will be held in Mt. Jackson, Va., where interment was made on Wednesday.

Jeremiah Bair, a well known retired farmer of the county, died suddenly Thursday morning, Nov. 6, at the home of his son, Wilson Bair, near White Hall, from heart trouble, aged 77 years, 2 months and 11 days. He was born in Union township and was the son of the late John and Harriet Bair. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Anna Mary Rohrbaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rohrbaugh, of Silver Run, and one son, Wilson Bair, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Renner, of near White Hall. Also four brothers, David Bair, of York county; John Bair, of Pennsylvania; William Bair, of near White Hall, and Amos Bair, of York; and one sister, Mrs. Henry Myers, of Mt. Pleasant township. He was a life long member of Christ Reformed Church, near Littlestown, and was one of the most highly respected citizens of that community. Funeral will be held Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock with services by Rev. F. S. Lindaman at Christ Reformed Church where interment will be made.

Mrs. Catherine Eldon, widow of the late George W. Eldon, died at the home of her brother, John A. Weigle, in Bendersville, last Saturday following a stroke of apoplexy, aged 83 years, 6 months and 3 days. She leaves a step-son, Harry Eldon, of Bendersville; one sister, Mrs. Savilla Myers, of Hampton; and one brother, John A. Weigle, of Bendersville. She was a life long member of the Bendersville Lutheran Church. Funeral was on Tuesday morning, services by her pastor, Rev. W. D. E. Scott, in interment in the Bendersville Cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Waltman, wife of John D. Waltman, who resided at the home of her son, Stewart E. Waltman, of near Brunsdown, died last Thursday. Death was due to infirmities and the effects of a stroke of paralysis, which she suffered ten years ago, which rendered her helpless ever since. She was a daughter of the late Levi and Eliza Schwartz, and was a life-long resident of the community in which she lived and died. Her age was 80 years, 2 months and 21 days. Besides her husband she is survived by the following children: Henry A. DISTRESSING AUTO TRAGEDY.

Little School Boy Hit and Instantly Killed.

Little Harold Cashman, 9 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cashman, of Granite, along the Lincoln Highway, midway between Gettysburg and New Oxford, met with a shocking death on Monday afternoon. The little fellow was instantly killed when struck by an automobile on the Lincoln Highway at the school house. He was thrown to the road with such force that his skull was fractured.

The boy in company with other scholars had just come from school and was walking down the road when a machine came in sight. It was running at a moderate speed and the boy darted across the road, but he was not quick enough to clear the car, which knocked him down. Dr. Seaks, of New Oxford, rushed to the scene of the accident but the boy was dead when he arrived.

The distressing accident, according to all eye witnesses, was unavoidable. The driver of the car was Mr. J. R. Dosch, of Lancaster, who immediately stopped his car and placed the child in the car, took him to his home and went after the physician. Miss Lela Galbraith, teacher at the school, witnessed the tragedy and said the driver of the car was not to blame and had done all in his power to avoid striking the boy. Mr. Dosch was distressed over the accident and told how he had been traveling in center of road at about 15 miles an hour and when he saw the children pulled over to the left to get out of the way of the child, but he kept on coming and that he put on brakes and did all in his power to prevent striking the child. The child did not seem to know his danger and that the screams of the other children were for him. His sister Ruth saw the accident. He is survived by his parents, a sister Ruth, and two brothers, Charles and Chester. The funeral was on Thursday with interment at St. Luke's Church near White Hall.

Red Cross Drive.

The Heart and the Dollar campaign for membership for the Red Cross is not completed, many of the branches not having reported, and the local field not being fully reported. To date the membership is about eleven hundred. There must be many of our people who have not been seen yet and it is very simple to send the $1 to headquarters in Gettysburg. The record of the Red Cross during the war stands out so wonderful that it is not conceivable that any citizen would not wish to remain a member and help the great work yet to be done.

Prof. W. Raymond Shank has been selected to take charge of the Junior Red Cross drive in this county and has already started on an active campaign.

The Knitting Committee in charge of Miss Annie Horner have shipped a box of children's caps and sweaters to the Mt. Alto Sanatorium. There are a great many children there as patients to whom these warm winter garments will be a great comfort. The articles were knitted from odd lengths of yarn left from the previous work, and trimmed with bright colored worsted. This work will continue for a while.

Miss Stewart, of Philadelphia, as Field Secretary, in Home Service Department of Red Cross, is here looking after the work in Adams county.

Pupils Honor Father Boyle.

Friday morning the pupils of St. Francis Xavier School gave a special program to celebrate the eighteenth anniversary of Rev. Fr. W. F. Boyle's ordination to the priesthood. Following the program the school presented Fr. Boyle with a beautiful bouquet of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Lutheran Mass Meeting.

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 18, there will be a mass meeting of the Lutheran men of Adams county. Dr. Charles L. Fry, of Philadelphia, will address the meeting in St. James Lutheran Church at 8 o'clock. Ladies are also invited.

School Holidays Announced.

At the regular meeting of the School Board on Thursday evening the question of holidays was decided. Thanksgiving Day, Thursday the 27th, the schools will be closed and the Christmas vacation will begin Wednesday, Dec. 24th, and end Monday, January 5th.

Civil Cases Tried.

The first civil case to be tried was on Wednesday, being that of Milton Wolf vs. Lawrence Emler. The plaintiff sued for wages of a minor son covering a period in 1917 and 1918, nine months and ten days at $18 a month. The minor left home in 1916, working at Steelton and Harrisburg and there was evidence to show the minor had been chased off by his father. One witness detailed how in summer of 1917 the father had ordered the boy to get out; he had no use for him. Evidence was offered to show that in October notice was sent defendant that he would be sued for wages and this suit was brought notwithstanding defendant settled in full with the boy for his services. The jury gave plaintiff a verdict for $54, covering a period of three months the boy worked for defendant after receiving notice that he would be sued. Wm. Hersh, Esq., for plaintiff, and Wm. Arch. McClean, Esq., for defendant.

The suit involved a sale of hogs which after a period of feeding weighed no more than when bought and the question submitted to the jury were the correctness of the scales upon which the hogs were weighed, as there was some correction of the scales by the Sealer of Weights and Measures in the meantime.

The jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant Friday morning. The next case for trial was Chas. G. Grove vs. Harry E. Rebert, a contest growing out of sale of cattle, was settled and court adjourned until Saturday morning.

SPROUL FULLY ENDORSES SEALS

Governor Says Christmas Sale is Potent Force Back of State Health Program.

Harrisburg, Pa.—Governor William C. Sproul sees in the Christmas Red Cross Seal Sale one of the most potent agencies now being used to enlist the public back of the state's public health campaign.

"Only the co-operation of the public," says Governor Sproul, who is honorary chairman of the state seal committee, "will make it possible for the state adequately to deal with the various disease problems that face us."

"We cannot hope to prevent all disease. But we can properly hope to go far in the direction of preventing preventable disease. We can reduce the dangers of contagion. But in every health movement it is necessary that the public and the state work along the same lines."

"The Christmas Red Cross Seal has back of it the force of Christmas sentiment. But it also stands for practical endeavor. The funds raised by the seal sale are used to bring home to all of our people a realization of the fact that the white plague can be conquered and a knowledge of how to conquer it. The Christmas seal is intimately associated with the child victim of the white plague. If we can so order society that the children are safe from the white plague, we are on a fair way to solving our problem."

"The private agencies that are financed by means of the seal sale co-operate. I understand, with the state department of health, and particularly with the bureau of tuberculosis, and the local tuberculosis dispensaries."

"In short the seal sale helps make it possible to align the public back of the state's health program. And for that reason it has my cordial endorsement, as well as the approval of the state department of health."

TUBERCULOSIS CROSS A SYMBOL OF CHARITY AND HELP TO HUMANITY

The double red cross as a symbol or emblem of the organizations fighting the white plague has been in use for seventeen years. It was first adopted for this purpose by the International Anti-Tuberculosis Association in Berlin in October, 1902. It was proposed by Dr. G. Sersiron, of Paris. Dr. Sersiron took the shape of this cross from the common Croix de Lorraine and the cross of the Greek Catholic church. Today this emblem is used by anti-tuberculosis workers all over the world.

The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis in 1906 adopted the double barred cross for use in the United States. Neither the form nor the proportions were specified and the result was a variety of shapes and proportions. Because of this condition the National Association in 1913 appointed a special committee to consider the design and the dimensions of the double barred cross as the emblem for all anti-tuberculosis organizations in the United States. The committee reported in favor of a double cross with equal cross arms, the upper standard being shorter and the lower standard longer than the cross arms; the ends of both arms and standards being pointed instead of square.

This design was fixed upon for three reasons:

Because the design selected is farthest removed from any design having a religious significance.

Because it is farthest removed from the well-known emblem used by the American Red Cross.

Because its widespread use in this country by many anti-tuberculosis associations over a long period of years has associated it in the public mind with the tuberculosis movement.

The two crosses, the Croix de Lorraine and the cross of the Greek Catholic church, united in forming the tuberculosis cross, are symbolic of charity and help to humanity.

YOUR CHANCE TO BECOME BOND HOLDER OF HEALTH

A new feature of the Christmas Red Cross Seal Campaign this fall is the Health Bond. Health Bonds are used as substitutes for seals in cases where persons do not care to accept seals, at one cent each, for the amount of their subscription. The seals come in denominations of five, ten, twenty-five, fifty and one hundred dollars.

The Health Bonds can be bought by a person who wishes to devote any one of the sums mentioned to the fight on tuberculosis and the improving of the public health and does not want seals.

Liberty Bonds return interest in money. Health Bonds return interest in good health. For Health Bonds will help to improve the health of your community and your neighbors, and your health depends partly upon the health of your neighbors.

YOUR SYMBOL OF HOPE

This is the emblem of the tuberculosis organizations which sponsor the sale of Red Cross Seals at the Christmas season. In this state the organization is the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, which has affiliated societies in many communities.

RED CROSS SEAL FUNDS MANY USES

State and Local Tuberculosis Societies Carry on Much Constructive and Definite Work.

Proceeds from the sale of Red Cross Seals finance the fight on Tuberculosis. This work in Pennsylvania is carried on under the direction of the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. This association has local organizations in many localities which conducted the community work.

The largest proportion of the money coming from the sale of seals stays in the community in which the seals are sold. A small portion goes to the State Society.

The State Society and its associated branches carry on a definite and constructive work for eradicating the white plague and the improving of the public health.

Following are the uses to which Red Cross Seal funds are applied:

Aiding in the work of the Pennsylvania Society, which has a constructive program for the prevention of tuberculosis, and organizes, co-ordinates and unifies measures for the fulfillment of the program.

Co-operating with the state department of health, particularly in the Bureau of Tuberculosis Sanatoria, the local tuberculosis dispensaries, and the state health exhibit; and with local departments of health, for the promotion of all forms of anti-tuberculosis work.

Carrying on direct educational work as to the nature, treatment and prevention of tuberculosis, such educational work being addressed to securing the adoption of definite community activities in the anti-tuberculosis campaign.

Propaganda efforts for the establishment and operation by public authorities of survey, nursing, clinic, hospital, sanatorium, day or night camp, open-air school or class, or other kindred agencies.

Bell Telephone's New President.

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania held in Philadelphia, Leonard H. Kinnard, of Philadelphia, was elected President of the Company, succeeding Frank B. Hothell, of New York City, who recently resigned.

Mr. Kinnard is very well known throughout Pennsylvania. His rise in the Bell organization has been most notable. From the pioneering days when he first joined that organization as a clerk in the office of the then Pennsylvania Telephone Company at Harrisburg, thirty-one years ago, every new cycle of the business has marked conspicuous advancement for him. Following virtual apprenticeships served at various cities in the central part of the state, Mr. Kinnard was successively Division Superintendent, General Superintendent and General Manager of The Pennsylvania Telephone Company. Upon the consolidation of the Bell Companies in January 1908, Mr. Kinnard went from Harrisburg to Philadelphia as General Contract Agent of the larger organization known as The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania and Associated Companies, embracing the operation of Bell property throughout Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, and portions of New Jersey, West Virginia and Ohio.

In 1912 he was elected Vice President and General Manager of the present so-called Pennsylvania Group of companies, becoming, as such, the resident head of the Bell System in Pennsylvania. During the years of the war in this section of the country wherein were concentrated as no where else an unprecedented governmental and industrial activity, the demands on the Company under Mr. Kinnard's immediate administration called for a tremendous degree of enterprise and astuteness in the exercise of that administration, especially in view of the fact that in addition to the operators who as volunteers served the Government in the camps and over-seas, there were fourteen hundred men of the organization with the colors when hostilities ceased.

Despite the pressure of his other duties during the war, Mr. Kinnard was prominently identified with numerous committee works, not the least of which was the Committee of National Defense of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, of which he was Vice Chairman, and the Philadelphia Advisory Committee on the Purchase of Army Supplies. The First Telegraph Battalion (later the 46th) of the American Expeditionary Force was organized by Mr. Kinnard from the men of his companies, and saw nearly two years of service in France, being the first such unit to land on foreign soil and having the task of furnishing the principal lines of telephonic communication from the headquarters of the Commander-in-Chief.

Mr. Kinnard will be succeeded as Vice President and General Manager by John C. Lynch, heretofore General Superintendent of Traffic of the system, and James L. Kilpatrick, Engineer of the Company, becomes Assistant General Manager.

Men Will Get Bonus and Mileage.

Men enlisted before April 2, 1917 who are discharged from that enlistment, in order to sign up again, will be glad to know that now they are entitled to the bonus and mileage money which has been paid to the so-called emergency soldiers. The Recruiting Officer at Harrisburg is in receipt of a telegram from the Adjutant General of the Army, as follows: "You are informed that telegraphic instructions have been issued directing Finance Officer to pay bonus and mileage to men who enlisted before April second nineteen seventeen and who are discharged to reenlist. Give wide publicity."

King of Poor Penmen.

The palm for illegibility is generally awarded to the late Horace Greeley, but in our own land probably Lecky was king of impossible penmen.

There are veteran compositors alive who remember setting up his "History of Morals." Those who could decipher the manuscript were more prized than their rivals who took Arabic and Hindustani in their stride.

To master Lecky the men were allowed to take home dubious folks and ponder them in privacy. They say that the author was, in printing circles, the best cursed man of the century.—London Chronicle.

DEMOCRACY ON TOP.

The most conspicuous Democratic triumph on election day was in New Jersey, the only State where contest was on national issues. Hughes carried State in 1916 by 58,000. Chairman Hays, of the Republican National Committee, appealed to New Jersey voters for an overwhelming Republican victory, moving to control of the country. Jersey's U. S. Senator declared that to vote for the Democratic ticket in New Jersey meant repudiation of the Republican party. U. S. Senators and Congressmen—spell binders—were sent to the State on behalf of Republican party. The Democratic candidate, Gov.-elect Edwards, stood squarely on national and international policies advocated by President Wilson. Democracy won.

Ryde's Egg Mash

"Makes Them Lay"

That's what you want at the price of eggs to-day. Makes every hen a payer by producing eggs nearly all the time instead of about half the time. Eggs is a question of feed. Give hens egg-producing feed and they will produce the eggs. No feed, or the wrong kind of feed, means no eggs.

Ryde's Egg Mash

is an unequalled egg producer, containing animal and vegetable nutrition in the correct proportions to produce results. No guess work or experimenting on the part of the feeder. The increased egg yield overcomes the cost of the mash.

More Eggs, Better Eggs, Bigger Eggs

Try a bag to-day on those hens that are backward and you will be more than pleased with the results.

Ryde's Cream Calf Meal

is the best substitute for milk in feeding all young stock. It supplies them with all the food value found in whole milk in just as digestible a form and in the correct proportions. It does them just as much good as whole milk and you save more than half the feed bill. Every pound makes one gallon of gruel, or rich, nutritious, perfect milk substitute. You take no chances.

President's Thanksgiving Proclamation

"The season of the year has again arrived when the people of the United States are accustomed to unite in giving thanks to Almighty God for the blessings which he has conferred upon our country during the twelve months that have passed. A year ago our people poured out their hearts in praise and thanksgiving that through Divine aid the right was victorious and peace had come to the nations which had so courageously struggled in defense of human liberty and justice. Now that the stern task is ended and the fruits of achievement are ours, we look forward with confidence to the dawn of an era where the sacrifices of the nations will find recompense in a world at peace.

"But to attain the consummation of the great work to which the American people devoted their manhood and the vast resources of their country they should, as they give thanks to God, reconsecrate themselves to those principles of right which triumphed through his merciful goodness. Our gratitude can find no more perfect expression than to bulwark with loyalty and patriotism those principles for which the free peoples of the earth fought and died.

"During the past year we have had much to make us grateful in spite of the confusion in our economic life resulting from the war we have prospered. Our harvests have been plentiful and of our abundance we have been able to render succor to less favored nations. Our democracy remains unshaken in a world torn with political and social unrest. Our traditional ideals are still our guides in the path of progress and civilization.

"These great blessings, vouchsafed to us, for which we devoutly give thanks, should arouse us to a fuller sense of our duty to ourselves and to mankind to see to it that nothing we may do shall mar the completeness of the victory which we helped to win. No selfish purpose animated us in becoming participants in the World War, and with a like spirit of unselfishness we should strive to aid by our example and by our co-operation in realizing the enduring welfare of all peoples and in bringing into being a world ruled by friendship and good will.

"Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, hereby designate Thursday, the 27th day of November next, for observance as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer by my fellow countrymen, inviting them to cease on that day from their ordinary tasks and to unite in their homes and in their several places of worship in ascribing praise and thanksgiving to God the Author of all blessings and the master of our destinies.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done in the District of Columbia this fifth day of November, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-fourth.

(Signed) "WOODROW WILSON."

By the President:
 Robert Lansing,
 Secretary of State.

President's Armistice Message.

To My Fellow-countrymen:

A year ago to-day our enemies laid down their arms in accordance with an armistice which rendered them impotent to renew hostilities and gave to the world an assured opportunity to reconstruct its shattered order and to work out in peace a new and juster set of international relations. The soldiers and the people of the European Allies had fought and endured for more than four years to uphold the barrier of civilization against the aggressions of armed force. We, ourselves had been in the conflict something more than a year and a half. With splendid forgetfulness of mere personal concerns we remodeled our industries, concentrated our financial resources, increased our agricultural output, and assembled a great army, so that in the last our power was a decisive factor in the victory. We were able to bring the vast resources, material and moral, of a great people and free people to the assistance of our associates in Europe who had suffered and sacrificed without limit in the cause for which we fought.

Out of this victory there arose new possibilities of political freedom and economic concert. The war showed us the strength of great nations acting together for high purposes, and the victory of arms foretells the enduring conquests which can be made in peace when nations act justly and in furtherance of the common interest of men. To us in America, the reflections of Armistice Day will be filled with solemn pride in the heroism of those who died in the country's service, and with gratitude for the victory both because of the thing from which it has freed us, and because of the opportunity it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice in the councils of nations.

WOODROW WILSON.
 The White House,
 11 November, 1919.

WEDDINGS.

Martz-Keller.—At the Reformed parsonage in Fairfield Thursday afternoon, Miss Bertha L. Keller, of McKnightstown, became the bride of Carl R. Martz, formerly of Cashtown who is now employed in People's Drug Store, Gettysburg. Mr. and Mrs. Martz left on a wedding trip to Harrisburg and Philadelphia, and upon their return will live in Gettysburg. Carl R. League of Women Voters.

The fifty-first annual State Convention of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association at Philadelphia, Nov. 9-11, was an important historical event, for it witnessed the disbanding of the old organization that worked for the woman suffrage which has been finally won, and the creation of a new organization to be known as the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters, the object of which will be to acquaint women with the new duties and responsibilities of citizenship so as to become intelligent voters. The work of the first year will be to become familiar with the principles of American citizenship and election laws and methods. Other work later will be as to Food Supply and Demand, Child Welfare, Women in Industries, Social Hygiene, unification of laws concerning the legal status of women. Mrs. John O. Miller, of Pittsburgh, head of the old organization, was made president of the new League.

On Monday evening the convention dinner was held at the Bellevue Stratford, and Adams county was represented by Mrs. D. P. McPherson, Mrs. A. I. Weidner, Mrs. Robt. Eldon, Miss Dorothy Adams, Miss Rebecca Adams, Mrs. John D. Keith, Miss Mary Peters and Mrs. Wm. A. McClean. Governor Sproul addressed the League and warned against any distinct woman's party as had been attempted in another State. Citizenship was not based on sex and to seek to establish a party founded only on sex prejudice would be destructive of citizenship. Governor Sproul assured them that he would always have the interests of equal suffrage at heart for he had been born a woman suffrage advocate.

Among the other speakers were Wm. G. McAdoo, Cleveland Moffett, the magazine writer, and Mrs. Vernon Kellogg.

At the sessions on Tuesday addresses were made by Mrs. Charles H. Brooks, National Chairman of the League of Women Voters, Mrs. Nancy M. Schoonmaker, on Citizenship, and Dr. Thomas E. Finaegan. A creamy part of the proceedings was the discussion by Mrs. Antoinette Funk supporting Democracy, and Mrs. Fletcher Dobyns, Republicanism.

Mrs. McPherson served as a member of the Committee on Resolutions.

Gettysburg, Pa. The Leaders G. W. WEAVER & Son. Dry Goods Department Store

Did you ever hear tnat short little poem which ends,

"You are late.
You've missed your date,
Fool, I'm Time,
I never wait?"

And if you have heard it before, did it ever occur to you, how costly waiting policies on the part of a great store could be to you—the public? If we were to be hesitant, slow to assume great responsibilities, slow to grasp golden opportunities, slow to be generous in extending shares of our gains, then there would never have been built the business we enjoy. The ideals of a store, like the ideals of a man, become imbedded in the nature of the being, and they continue, strong, undefeated throughout the ages. This, then, is a good thing to remember in selecting a place to trade. The institution which has carried through the years the burden of serving you in a helpful, beneficial way, always willing to satisfy you at all costs, will retain that policy, that ideal for ever. Be satisfied in every shopping trip you make, never know the discouragement of disappointment in merchandise, by pinning your faith to this store.

No matter what character of goods you desire—we are likely ready for you if it is generally stocked on a Dry Goods Store.
